

ABOUT DONMEZLER GROUP

The Dönmezler Group was established in 2008, working to create the standards of a better life by taking the lead of new discoveries that shape modern life. Dönmezler, which includes the best-in-class lifestyle brands that will turn into a passion for its employees, business partners and even competitors as well as its customers, continues to work with the aim of becoming a global player in its fields. construction, architecture; Operating in six main sectors, namely automotive, mining and energy, Dönmezler Group also continues to grow with its new investments in technology, sports and entertainment in addition to the existing sectors. With over 5 companies and 80 employees, the Group serves its customers with superior technology, high brand quality and a dynamic human resource.